

December 7, 2009

Dear Parent,

- The third grade is leading the Advent Mass. Readings went home last week. Please practice with your child nightly, as some of the readings are difficult.
- I plan to have the January calendar completed before Christmas Vacation. Please watch for this to come home.
- This is just a reminder that after the New Year, the Monday Folder newsletter will be available only on the 3rd grade class page of the St. Pius School website. www.stpiusschool.org
- The second quarter book report assignment will be sent home tomorrow. Please remember that your child needs to have his/her book checked by me. The genre of this book report is biography/autobiography of someone that is no longer living.
- Please note that there were tests added to the December calendar. I have listed them below.
