Dear Parents,

Just a reminder that Monday, May 17, is the “Wax Museum.” Students need to have their speeches memorized and bring their costumes in a bag so they can change after recess. Below is a copy of what I passed out to the students last week:

This project is part of your religion and English grade. You will need to research information and prepare a 20-30 second speech about the saint you selected. Some suggestions for the speech are:

- feast day
- important events
- interesting facts
- God’s affect on them

On Monday, May 18, you will dress up like the saint you choose and the class will present a “Wax Museum.” You will need to memorize your speech.

This Friday is our annual Mini-Olympics. This year the third grade will be wearing orange. Student Council will also be preparing a BBQ lunch for the students. Your child does not need a lunch on Friday. If your child did not order a lunch, a bag lunch must be brought. Please make sure your child has sunscreen on that day. Hats are also permitted.

This month the third grade will be learning more about the Rosary. To help with this concept, I am asking the students to bring in a rosary this Wednesday. If you do not have one, the school does have extras. They are also learning a new prayer, The Prayer to the Holy Spirit. There will be a test on this prayer next Thursday.
