Dear Parent,

This week, the third grade class is collecting peanut butter and jelly for Sandwiches on Sunday. Please help support our drive. In the afternoon, some students will be reading announcements for this drive over the intercom. Please note that if your child does not get a chance to read this week, there are other opportunities throughout the year, and each child will read at least once over the intercom or at a Mass.

Today the class started IOWA testing. Please make sure your child gets to school on time, gets plenty of rest and eats a good breakfast. Also, make sure your child has two chapter books with them to read when he/she finishes a test.

When you review the social studies test today, each question was worth 5 points. On the math test each question is worth 2 points.

If your child forgot something at home or you need to give them an item, please do not come into the hallway or the classroom. There is a table outside the office where items may be left.

To clear up some confusion, there are times I do not collect work the very next day. Your child has been told to put it in a certain section of their organizer until a later date. It is also your child's responsibility to turn any late work (classwork, homework, absent work) into me. I do not ask for it. Please help your child work on this organizational skill.

There will be no spelling test this week.
