Dear Parent,

- In the Monday Folder, there is a heart drawn on a half sheet a paper. Please help your child decorate and write on it how your family is preparing for this Advent season. These should be returned by Friday.
- The Santa Shoppe is Wednesday. If your child is planning on buying gifts, please make sure you send the money in on Wednesday. If you would like to send the money in early, I can hold on to it until Wednesday.
- The December calendar is in your child's organizer. Please check for updates and changes.
- I plan to have the January calendar completed before Christmas vacation. Please watch for this to come home. It will also be posted on the St. Pius School website under Third Grade.
- A book report assignment will be sent home on Friday. Please remember that your child needs to have his/her book checked by me before they start reading. The genre of this book report is biography/autobiography of someone that is no longer living.
- You will notice in the Monday Folder that attached to a summary sheet on Great White Sharks is a T-Chart. This is the second step that your child will be making to create good paragraphs. There is no paragraph attached to these papers. They are working on brainstorming ideas. Please note that sentences are not suppose to be on the T-Chart. There should be phrases and/or words.
